U.S. Domestic Relocation Summary

For International Assignment to United States Career Path Change
Moving to the United States
January 1, 2015

Introduction

This document provides a summary of relocation benefits. It does not constitute a guarantee and benefit eligibility may depend on individual circumstances. To avoid jeopardizing certain relocation benefits, please do not begin any aspects of your relocation program prior to discussions with your Brookfield Global Relocation Services (Brookfield) relocation consultant. In particular, please do not contact a real estate agent for assistance in your old or new work location.

The following is a brief summary of the benefits included in your relocation program which are effective January 1, 2015. *Refer to full program document for details. Relocation services and benefits cannot begin until you are within 90 days of your effective start date with Chevron.

Topics Covered in this Summary

- Repayment Agreement
- Allowance Payments
- Departure Services and Benefits
- Destination Services and Benefits
- Additional Relocation Services

Repayment Agreement

Prior to receiving any relocation benefits you are required to sign a one-year relocation payment agreement. The repayment schedule is 100 percent repayment if you voluntarily leave Chevron from your effective payroll transfer.

Miscellaneous Expense Allowance (MEA)

- If you are moving to the U.S. directly from an international location, at the beginning of your move, you will receive a one-time payment equal to 1.5 months salary (uncapped), less taxes, to cover any non-specific miscellaneous expenses that you might incur as a result of your relocation. No receipting is required.
- If you are already living and working in your new U.S. location you will receive a one-time payment equal to 1.5 months salary (capped at $15,000), less taxes, and you must change residence in order to be eligible for the Miscellaneous Expense Allowance.

Relocation Allowance

Together with your MEA you will receive an additional payment specifically intended to cover the anticipated costs of your house hunting and interim living based on the following:

- House Hunting: lodging and meals
  - Homeowner: six nights / seven days
  - Renter: three nights / four days
- Interim Living: lodging for 30 days plus a one-time $500 interim living setup
- House hunting trip feature does not apply if you are already living in the new location while on temporary international, residential expatriate or other company assignments.

Departure Services and Benefits

Homeowner – Home Selling Services

Chevron will reimburse you, with appropriate documentation, for normal and customary one-time closing costs on your home in your country of origin or passport. See policy details for excluded properties. Speak with your Brookfield consultant prior to taking any actions to sell your property. No home selling assistance is provided should you have purchased a home in a different work location other than your original point of departure (from your home country).

Renter - Lease Cancellation

If you are a renter and incur lease cancellation penalties on your rental house or apartment, you will be reimbursed for the equivalent of up to two months' rent.

Destination Services and Benefits

Home Finding Services

- Chevron provides destination services to assist you in finding a new primary residence in your new work location. These services are administered by Brookfield and participation is required in order for you to receive certain future relocation benefits.
  - Required placement of home purchase referral with real estate agent through Brookfield.
  - Assistance with home purchase negotiation and contract review prior to submission of your offer.
- If you are a renter, Chevron will reimburse you up to $750 for professional rental finding assistance.

Chevron Approved Lender Program

- Chevron has agreements with several preferred mortgage lenders. The benefits of using these approved lenders are:
  - Competitive mortgage rates.
  - Direct bill of loan closing costs.
  - Negotiated mortgage costs.
- If you are receiving certain high housing costs benefits (as outlined below), you are required to use one of the approved lenders for your new loan.

New Home Purchase Closing Costs

If you were a homeowner and purchase a home in your new work location, Chevron will pay your normal and customary home purchase closing costs. In addition, Chevron will pay your:

- Pre-purchase inspections; subject to restrictions.

Duplicate Housing

After your initial 30-day interim living benefit, as provided in your relocation allowance, Chevron provides an additional 90 days assistance with your housing costs, in your country of origin or passport, while you market your home for sale. You are reimbursed for:

- Interest, taxes and insurance on your former residence.
- Property maintenance.

Homeowner - High Housing Cost Benefits

If you move into a new work location designated by Chevron to be a high or very high cost housing area, you may be eligible for one or more of the benefits described below:

- Basic Housing Differential (BHD)
- Supplemental Housing Assistance (SHA)
- Chevron uses an independent, industry-leading company to provide the cost of housing index used as the basis to determine your eligibility for these benefits.
- Benefit eligibility is based on the housing index differential between your current and new work locations.
- Your ability to utilize some of these benefits may be affected by mandatory lender guidelines and your creditworthiness.
- You must use one of Chevron's approved lenders.

Basic Housing Differential (BHD)

- The BHD is a one-time payment, less taxes, provided to help defray the increased housing costs in your new work location.
- Your benefit eligibility is based on the calculated housing index differential, and the payment is made based on the following schedule:
  - Standard or high cost areas from $0 to $22,000.
  - Very high cost areas from $0 to $40,000.

Supplemental Housing Assistance (SHA)

SHA is a dollar-based mortgage interest rate subsidy, used to reduce the interest rate on your new home primary mortgage for up to five years, based on the following schedule:

Year 1 – 30%	Year 4 – 15%
Year 2 – 25%	Year 5 – 10%
Year 3 – 20%	Year 6 – 0%

- Your benefit eligibility is based on the calculated housing index differential, and the payment is made based on the following schedule:
  - High cost areas from $0 up to $7,500
  - Very high cost areas from $0 up to $40,000
- The SHA benefit is taxable income and is tax assisted at time of payment. Interest paid in the SHA program may be claimed as an itemized deduction on your personal income tax filing. Adjustment to your SHA tax assistance may be made in the year-end tax true up.

Renter- High Cost Renter's Assistance (HCRA)

- The HCRA is a one-time payment, less taxes, provided to renters to help defray the increased housing costs in your new work location.
- Benefit eligibility is based on the calculated index differential, and the payment is made based on the following schedule:
  - High Cost areas from $0 up to $3,750.
  - Very High Cost area from $0 up to $15,000.

Additional Relocation Benefits

Final Move Trip

- Chevron will reimburse the cost for reasonable lodging, per diem meals and transportation for you and any eligible family members while in transit to the new work location.
- If you fly, you will be reimbursed for a one-way, economy fare, 14 to 21 day advance purchase airfare. If you are traveling from Canada or Mexico, and choose to drive, you must travel a minimum distance of 400 miles per day and will receive reimbursement based on Chevron's business mileage rate.
- Reimbursement of up to $350 towards shipping of two household pets.

Household Goods

- Chevron provides you with a full-service move including packing, shipping and unpacking your household goods and personal effects from your departure residence to your destination residence.
- If your move is greater than 400 miles (within the U.S.), two vehicles may be shipped.
- 60 days of storage.
- $100,000 replacement value insurance is provided while your goods are in transit or storage.
