

notice regarding wellness program

The Healthy Heart Program and health rewards are voluntary wellness programs available to all benefits-eligible U.S.-payroll employees. The programs are administered according to federal rules permitting employer-sponsored wellness programs that seek to improve employee health or prevent disease, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008, and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, as applicable, among others. If you choose to participate in the wellness programs you will be asked to complete a voluntary health risk assessment or HRA (also referred to as a voluntary health questionnaire) that asks a series of questions about your health-related activities and behaviors and whether you have or had certain medical conditions (e.g., cancer, diabetes, or heart disease). You will also be asked to enter in information provided to you from a biometric screening, which will include a blood test to evaluate your cholesterol and triglyceride levels. You are not required to complete the HRA or to participate in the blood test or other medical examinations.

Eligible employees who choose to participate in health rewards and the Healthy Heart Program may qualify for an incentive. For 2020, the incentive (also referred to as a Wellness Credit) is a premium reduction of up to $750 annually on qualifying Chevron-sponsored medical coverage premiums. Although you are not required to complete the HRA or participate in the biometric screening, be advised that some of the qualifying activities to earn points toward the Wellness Credit require completion of the HRA to be eligible to participate in that activity.

If you are unable to participate in any of the health-related activities or achieve any of the health outcomes required to earn an incentive, you may be entitled to a reasonable accommodation or an alternative standard. You may request a reasonable accommodation or an alternative standard by contacting the Healthy Heart Program at heart@chevron.com.

The information from your HRA and the results from your biometric screening will be used to provide you with information to help you understand your current health and potential risks, and may also be used to offer you services through the wellness programs, such as working with a health coach. You also are encouraged to share your results or concerns with your own doctor.
