Fidelity offers free online webcasts and live web workshops throughout the year to help you live well financially. They are open to all Fidelity participants; all you have to do is find the topics that interest you and register to attend or watch a replay.

webcasts

Webcasts offer you an opportunity to participate in practical conversations with experts on a number of financial topics. From time to time, you may receive email invitations from Fidelity to attend a webcast series. Even if you don’t receive an invitation, you can still attend. To view and sign up for the following upcoming topics, or to watch replays of past webcasts at any time, go to Fidelity.com/Webcasts.

Role Reversal: Talking Estate Planning with Older Loved Ones
October 31 and November 1
Estate plans aren’t just for the wealthy. Discover how you can help everyone involved feel more confident and in control of what happens to their money, property and other assets.

Creating Your Retirement Income Plan
November 7 and 8
Find out how you can use the resources you have available to help build a paycheck to last through retirement.

live web workshops

Live web workshops are offered every day. The daily workshops are not specific to Chevron’s plan and are open to all Fidelity participants.

Chevron-specific web workshops are also offered throughout the year. The following workshop was recently added to the schedule.

Learn the Basics of When and How to Claim Social Security
November 2 and 13
Understand your options for Social Security, so you can determine when and how to claim your benefit.

To view the full schedule and register, log on at webworkshops.fidelity.com.