out-of-pocket maximum clarification

The Medical PPO has separate out-of-pocket maximums, one for prescription drug costs and the other for medical, mental health and substance abuse services, combined.

There is an error in the Medical Out-of-Pocket Maximum Feature section of the Medical PPO Plan summary plan description. The bullet included below was incorrectly included on the listing for “The following expenses do not count toward the medical and mental health services out-of-pocket maximum amount ...” and should be disregarded.

- Your share of the cost for services and supplies under the Mental Health and Substance Abuse Plan.

This communication provides only certain highlights about changes of benefit provisions. It is not intended to be a complete explanation. If there are any discrepancies between this communication and the legal plan documents, the legal plan documents will prevail to the extent permitted by law. Oral statements about plan benefits are not binding on Chevron or the applicable plan. There are no vested rights with respect to Chevron health and welfare plans or any company contributions towards the cost of such health and welfare plans. Rather, Chevron Corporation reserves all rights, for any reason and at any time, to amend, change or terminate these plans or to change or eliminate the company contribution toward the cost of such plans. Such amendments, changes, terminations or eliminations may be applicable without regard to whether someone previously terminated employment with Chevron or previously was subject to a grandfathering provision.
